

CLASSIFICATION SECRET

COUNTRY Poland REPORT NO.

TOPIC Military Activity in Poland 25X1

EVALUATION PLACE OBTAINED 25X1

DATE OF CONTENT 25X1

DATE OBTAINED PREPARED 21 March 1955 25X1

REFERENCES

PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)

REMARKS

This is UNEVALUATED Information

25X1

1. On 23 November 1954, Wallendorf village (R 54/E 72) on the border of the Muschaken (R 54/E 71) troop training grounds has not been evacuated. Only the fields belonging to the southern area of the village were included in the field training area. On 24 October 1954, Paterschobensee (R 54/E 92) was also not included in the troop training area.¹ 25X1

2. a German of the 1931 class who presumably opted for Poland had again been deferred after the third registration for draft because he had to support his old parents. 25X1

3. Between 13 and 15 January 1955, it was determined that the Soviet-confiscated Reiherwerderhafen (harbor) (Kazubski Bases) in Stettin (O 54/Q 55) were returned to the civilian population.²

4. Between 9 and 15 January 1955, Soviet sentries were no longer seen in Reiherwerderhafen (harbor) in Stettin. The wire fence was partly torn down.²

5. On 23 January 1955, a border guard control leader seen in the harbor area of Stettin wore green facings on the collar and two crossed gun-barrel insignia. His soldiers wore vizor caps with green bands.²

1. Comment. The northeastern extension of the troop training grounds could not be determined. 25X1

2. Comment. The more important harbor in Stettin is the Freihafen which has not yet been released by the Soviets. 25X1

nodex-M

nodex-M 25X1

Page Denied